

IGEL Technology GmbH provides this Online Privacy Statement to make you aware of our Privacy Statement, practices and of the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used.

We will only collect sufficient information on you to allow us to communicate with you in an appropriate way. This information will include your name and organisation details as appropriate. In order to tailor our subsequent communications to you and continuously improve our services, we may also ask you to provide us with information regarding your personal or professional interests, demographics, experience and more detailed contact preferences.

IGEL Technology GmbH uses your information to better understand your needs and provide you with better service. Specifically, we use your information to communicate back to you, to update you on service and benefits, and to personalise our web sites for you.

From time to time, we may also use your information to contact you for market research or to provide you with marketing information we think would be of particular interest. At a minimum, we will always give you the opportunity to opt out of receiving such direct marketing or market research contact.

IGEL Technology GmbH will not sell, rent, or lease your personally identifiable information to others. Unless we are required by law, we will only share the personal data you provide online with other IGEL Technology GmbH entities and/or business partners who are acting on our behalf for the uses described above.

IGEL Technology GmbH will not use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without first requesting your permission. As previously stated, we will also provide you the opportunity to let us know if you do not wish to receive unsolicited direct marketing materials from us and we will do everything we can to honour such requests.

Links to third party web sites on the site are provided solely as a convenience to you. If you use these links, you will leave the IGEL Technology GmbH site. IGEL Technology GmbH has not reviewed all of these third party sites and does not control and is not responsible for any of these sites, their content or their Privacy Statement. Thus, IGEL Technology GmbH does not endorse or make any representations about them, or any information, software or other products or materials found there, or any results that may be obtained from using them. If you decide to access any of the third party sites linked to this site, you do so at your own risk.

IGEL Technology GmbH is committed to ensuring the security of your information. To prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the appropriate use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online. Email enquiries are transmitted by insecure means and stored off-line.

Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service offered by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses so-called "cookies", i. e. text files that are saved on your computer and permit the analysis of the use of the website by you. The information generated by the cookie in respect of your use of this website is usually transferred to a Google server in the USA and is stored there. If, however, IP anonymization has been enabled on this website, your IP address will be shortened by Google within the Member States of the European Union or in other states that have signed the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptions will the full IP address be transferred to a Google server in the USA and will be shortened there. Google will use this information on behalf of the operator of this website to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on the website activities and to provide the website operator with additional services associated with the use of the website and the use of the Internet. The IP address transferred by your browser within Google Analytics will not be linked with other data of Google. You have the option to prevent storage of the cookies by implementing the corresponding settings in your browser software; however, we wish to point out to you that in such case you might not be able to use all functions of this website. In addition, you can prevent collection of the data that is generated by the cookie and that refers to your use of the website (incl. your IP address) by Google and processing of this data by Google; for this, download and install the browser plug-in that is available under the following link (<https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>).

You can prevent capturing of data by Google Analytics by clicking on the following link. It will generate an opt-out cookie that will prevent future capturing of your data when you visit this website:
Deactivate Google Analytics

For more information on the Terms of Use and Data Privacy, visit www.google.com/analytics/terms/de.html or www.google.com/intl/de/analytics/privacyoverview.html. Please note that the code “gat._anonymizeIp();” has been added to Google Analytics on this website to ensure anonymised capturing of IP addresses (so-called IP Masking).
