

IGEL Academy Premium

Subscription-based Access to Premium IGEL Training

IGEL Academy, our Learning Management System (LMS), is the focal point for learning all things IGEL. This serves to enable our partners and customers to reach their goals faster through formally constructed and socially farmed content from throughout the IGEL community.

Why Subscribe to IGEL Academy Premium?

Imagine what happens when you make training and learning a core philosophy within your business! At IGEL, we strongly believe that education goes a long way towards your success. IGEL Academy equips your teams with the skills they need to extract maximum ROI from IGEL's solutions. The IGEL Academy LMS gives learners access to formal product training through self-paced eLearning, certification programs, social interaction with peers and specialized live training.

IGEL Certified Engineer Course

The IGEL Certified Engineer (ICE) course is the centrepiece of the IGEL Academy Premium offering.

ICE is an engineer-level course on IGEL products that includes hands-on virtual lab environments matched with self-paced eLearning.

Get Certified

After taking the ICE training course on IGEL Academy, learners will have the option to attempt the ICE exam. Upon passing the exam, an official certificate is immediately available for download. This process will be the same for future certification courses as well.

That's Just the Beginning

Investing in education makes financial sense. IGEL Academy Premium is a subscription service that gives learners unlimited access to ongoing premium IGEL training content and future certifications as they are released. Students with Premium access should expect to see a regular release of supplementary courses on specialized subjects in between major releases of larger Certification Courses as well as access to premium social channels.

Basic access to the IGEL Academy LMS is free to everyone:
